

Director of Technical, Safety, Environment and Quality Systems

Directeur technique, sécurité, environnement, qualité

m/w Definition

In collaboration with the different services and service providers, s/he is responsible for the safety of staff and users at the site [compliance with standards and regulations, preventive actions and information, identification and analysis of dysfunctions and nonconformities, diagnosis of causes and identification of corrective actions]. S/he checks maintenance actions. S/he defines lines of action with regard to sustainability and participates in budgetary decisions in order to ensure that environmental issues are respected [sorting of waste, energy performance, raising awareness amongst the public, participation in land-use and property management programmes for the site, etc.]

NB : These details are provided for information purposes only. They may vary according to the size and organizational system of the company concerned.

Activities

Strategy and development of the organization

Integrate the challenges of sustainable development and CSR [diversity, disability, etc.] into the company's or organization's strategy

Management and coordination of staff

Supervise a team

Participate in staff recruitment procedures and in the induction of new staff within the organization

Communication

Lead/design internal and external communication actions

Communicate via all information channels [including Internet and digital, etc].

Director of Technical, Safety, Environment and Quality Systems | Directeur technique, sécurité, environnement, qualité

Quality, safety environment

- Integrate sustainability and CSR issues into the ways in which projects and work sites are conducted
- Ensure that regulations relating to installations and public safety are complied with fully
- Ensure that the public is received in appropriate conditions and in compliance with quality, hygiene and safety procedures
- Check the maintenance of equipment, materials and installations and identify any needs for replacements or repairs
- Ensure compliance with safety and security standards
- Ensure the safety of attractions and the implementation of the relevant regulations
- Optimize the arrangement and quality of green spaces
- Ensure good management of the sports equipment in an establishment or centre
- Lead and/or participate in working parties dealing with procedures related to quality assurance, CSR [diversity, disability, etc] and environmental management.
- Approve and check the key stages in the process of a mission, a study or a product, possibly within the context of a quality assurance system
- Obtain or manage a quality label or standard

Etudes et ingénierie

- Draw up invitations for tenders or design tender applications
- Prepare technical dossiers and analyze service-provider responses

Key skills

- Highly customer-focused attitude
- Proficient in the use of information and communication technologies
- Aware of the challenges of sustainability
- Able to speak, read and write one or more languages other their native language
- Knowledgeable about issues related to tourism and general culture

